This home is your opportunity to become a homeowner or an investor with low operating costs, you could own this home for less than rent! This 2-bedroom, 1-bath home has undergone recent renovations. The renovations include a custom kitchen featuring dovetail drawers, newer appliances, upgraded flooring, and a modernized bathroom. The electrical panel and most of the home's wiring have been replaced as well as much of the plumbing system. To help keep utilities low additional insulation was added in the attic. This home comes with one assigned parking stall which is close to your back door making unloading groceries very convenient. There is also additional street parking. With summer here you will enjoy the west facing concrete patio for those BBQ's and evening sunsets. There are no homes behind you giving you a great view of the rolling hills with the mountain tops peaking above. This home has low operating cost, and you could own this home for less then rent. Do not wait to schedule your showing because this one wont last long.
